Registration Day – Wednesday, August 29, 2012

Please enter through the double doors at the intersection of SE 24th Avenue and Oak Street.

Students whose last name begins with the following letter will register at the times indicated:

S-Z	8:00am – 8:45am
I-M	8:45am – 9:30am
BREAK	9:30am – 9:45am
E-H	9:45am – 10:30am
N-R	10:30am – 11:15am
A-D	11:15am – Noon

Parents are welcomed & encouraged to accompany their students for the registration process, or walk through the process for the student if he/she has a conflict and cannot attend.

In order to control both the length of the lines and the pace of the registration process, you may register ONLY at your assigned time or during a LATER time slot. If you are unable to register at the assigned time and cannot go through the process at a later time in the day, you may pick up your registration packet and buy your books in the Bookstore according to the following schedule: Freshmen only – Tuesday, September 4; 6:00am – 7:45am; All students – Wednesday, September 5; 6:00am – 7:45am

On Registration Day students will:

- Receive copies of their final academic schedule
- Receive their locker assignments
- Register their cars for student parking privileges
- Receive copies of the Student Planner
- Learn about our food service prepayment plan.
- Purchase SOME textbooks and PE uniforms - Learn more about and sign up for parent volunteer opportunities.

Reminders:

Students cannot sell used books on campus during Registration Day.
Rental books will be distributed during the first week of classes.
Rental book fees and specific course fees (if applicable) will be billed in October.

Please Note:

Students must pay their $270 ASB fee and $160 senior fee (if applicable), as well as July and August tuition payments, before they will be allowed to go through registration. In addition, any outstanding balances from the previous year(s) must be cleared. Families whose accounts are not up to date will be delayed in going through registration. Please send payments in advance to the Business Office. If you have questions or concerns, contact Lindy Boyce (lboyce@centralcatholichigh.org).
