

World Language Teacher - French and/or Spanish, Part Time (.4)

Central Catholic Seeks an educator who is committed to educating students from diverse backgrounds in a Catholic community, challenging each individual to live as a Christian witness in service to others.

As a classroom instructor, you are called upon to be a role model and a witness to the Gospel of Christ. Your main charge is to be engaged in creating an atmosphere in which the religious faith of each individual student as well as their intellectual, moral, and physical capacities can be developed.

The Central Catholic World Language curriculum connects our community to other places, countries, and cultures. The objective is to immerse students in different cultures while introducing and sustaining conversation, reading, and writing skills in languages other than English. Students learn languages to cultivate their spiritual, ethical, social and intellectual qualities essential for leadership in a rapidly changing global community while remaining rooted in the principles established by their Catholic education.

Essential job functions:

- Teach two individual classes in French. Potential for additional classes in Spanish may also be available.
- Teach concepts and knowledge for language acquisition and communication skills, utilizing the course of study prescribed by Central Catholic High School.
